267. Jesus appears to Mary of Magdala

= #342, p. 280

Mt	Mk 16:9–11	Lk	Jn 20:11–18
			[11]Mary, however, stood crying outside, and in her tears she stooped to look into the tomb, [12]and she sees two heavenly messengers in white seated where Jesus' body had lain, one at the head and the other at the feet. [13]"Lady, why are you crying?" they ask her. "They've taken my master away," she tells them, "and I don't know where they've put him." [14]No sooner had she said this than she turned around and sees Jesus standing there—but she didn't realize that it was Jesus. [15]"Lady," Jesus says to her, "why are you crying? Who is it you're looking for?" Thinking that he was the gardener, she says to him, "Please, mister, if you've moved him, tell me where you've put him so I can take him away." [16]"Mary," says Jesus. She turns around and exclaims in Hebrew, "Rabbuni!" (which means "Teacher"). [17]"Let go of me," Jesus tells her, "because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them this: 'I'm ascending to my Father and your Father—to my God and your God.'"
	[9]Now after he arose at daybreak on Sunday, he appeared first to Mary of Magdala, from whom he had driven out seven demons.
	[10]She went and told those who were close to him, who were mourning and weeping.		[18]Mary of Magdala goes and reports to the disciples, "I've seen the Master," and relates everything he had told her.
	[11]But when those folks heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.
